

the front, mainly in East Prussia and Croatia, the Russians are pushing forward vigorously.

"In East Prussia the most important feature is the siege of the fortress of Jassen, which the Russians left un-taken on their early dash in East Prussia, thereby enabling the Germans later to turn the tables on the invaders.

"South of Cracow the Russians are advancing steadily, while the movement into Hungary progresses at a satisfactory rate."

A Russian force numbering 270,000, under command of the Russian Generalissimo, is reported to have arrived before Cracow and to have begun a bombardment of the suburbs to the southeast of the city, according to a Daily Mail dispatch from The Hague. The opposing Austrian forces have withdrawn into the Sieradz pass in the Carpathians.

Austrian Official Statement.
VIENNA, Dec. 7.—The following official announcement has been issued by the Austrian war office:

"The fighting in the Russian war theater is not yet decisive. The Austro-Hungarian and German troops in the district southwest of Plotzkow in Poland attacked the Russian troops advancing northward across Nowo Radomsk and forced them to retreat.

"In West Galicia important battles are proceeding, but no result has been reported. The Austro-German troops captured 1,000 Russians in that territory on Sunday.

"In the Carpathians the battles continue and from some points the enemy has withdrawn strong forces behind the mountains."

SAYS CARRANZA ULTIMATUM DROVE U. S. FROM VERA CRUZ

Senator William A. Smith of Michigan Denounces "Weak Yielding to Demands" in Mexico.

Manchester, N. H., Dec. 7.—Speaking at a reception to Gov. Eliot Rolland H.
Spaulding tonight, Senator William A.
Smith of Michigan declared that when the American troops evacuated Vera Cruz they did so because Gen. Carranza had given President Wilson twenty-four hours to get out.

He characterized the removal of the American forces as "weak yielding to the demands of Carranza." He added that the United States forces left with conditions much worse than when they first occupied the Mexican port.

SENATE REFUSES INQUIRY

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—An effort by Senator Robinson of Arkansas today to launch an investigation of a publicly reported fact that the Carranza government in Mexico had appropriated $75,000 to obtain the influence of two United States senators in bringing about the early withdrawal of American troops from Vera Cruz precipitated brief discussion in the senate, but resulted in no action. Senators Stone, Gallinger, Penrose, and Smoot urged that the dignity of the senate would be lowered by its adoption, and on objection of Senator Smoot the resolution went over for the day.

BRITISH CONSUL AT CHICAGO ACCUSED OF RECRUITING.

Written Calls Bryan's Attention to Reports of Violation of United States Neutrality Laws.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—[Special.]— Representative Britton of Chicago has called the state department's attention to reports which have been circulated in Chicago to the effect that Horace D. Nugent, consul for Great Britain, has been recruiting persons for enlistment in the British army. In a letter to Secretary of State Bryan, Mr. Britton said:

"If not inconsistent with your own desires in the premises, I would respectfully suggest that an investigation of these charges be made by your department, after which I am sure the matter will be treated in such a way as to prevent any recruitment of persons for the army or navy of either belligerent power. A penalty of both fine and imprisonment is provided for violation."

TELLS OF GERMAN RED CROSS

Dr. Meyer Gerhardt Lectures to the Women While They Sew
Bandages.

"While dozens of women in the German club were sewing bandages and knitting for the soldiers, Dr. Meyer Gerhardt of the German Red Cross society told them of the friendly relations which had been established between the German and the American Red Cross.

"The American society will take care of all of our shipments," he said. "They will send the bandages and other supplies to Berlin, and also the money we have collected through the state department.
The arrangement is entirely satisfactory."

CO-EDS SHIP WAR GARMENTS

Midway Young Women Knit and Sew Curtains of Clothing for Belgians.

One hundred and twenty co-eds of the University of Chicago, led by Miss Phyllis Fay and Miss Elizabeth E. Johnson, yesterday completed the task of knitting and sewing a whole cartload of garments for the Belgian children and the soldiers in the trenches. Marshall Field & Co.
have agreed to forward the goods to Europe for the co-eds.

ALLIED ARMIES CONTINUE GAINS IN BELGIAN FIELD

Many Important Points Along Yser Canal Captured from the Germans.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The allied French, Belgian, and British forces have begun an offensive movement in West Flanders. They are now virtually in possession of the east bank of the Yser canal in northern France, particularly in the neighborhood of La Bassée, where the Germans hold a strong position, the allies are beginning with a heavy campaign to feel their way eastward.

The same process is being followed along the whole front. The French official communication speaks of "the superiority of our offensive" and the "marked advantage of the French artillery over that of the Germans."

The advance, slight as it is in the northeast, has ended for the present at least,
the German menace of the coast port.
It is believed that as long as the Germans are compelled to keep up the strength of their army in the east they will be unable to assume the offensive in the west.

Prepare for Another Dash.

There is a report, however, that the Germans have kept the pick of their western army in the Alsace valley, whence, at an opportune moment, they can hurl it forward and make another effort to get through to Paris.

Heavy firing was heard along the Belgian coast today, according to a Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam, indicating that the warships of the allies again are bombarding the German positions.

The allied communication issued by the war office in Paris tonight said:
"In Belgium the Germans have bombarded Oost Dinkerke, situated about two miles and a half to the west of Neu-port."

"Between Bethune and Lens we have taken possession of the village of Ver-nelles and the position of the Ruttere, to the east of which we are along the railway."

"Our troops have advanced perceptibly
in the region of Rouvroy, Pavilliers, and La Quenoye in Santerre, department of Somme."

German Attack Repulsed.

Telegraphing from Dunkirk, the Daily
Chronicle's correspondent says:
"The Germans early Monday morning made another attack on the Belgian lines at Ramecapelle, near Perwez. They came on numerous rafts which were armed with machine guns and towed by three powerful motor boats."

"As soon as the Belgian outposts opened fire the motor boats flashed blinding searchlights on them and opened a murderous machine gun fire. The Germans reached the shore and were preparing to land when the Belgians brought up a searchlight, enabling the Belgian and French artillery, stationed some distance in the rear, to shell the rafts accurately."

"The weight of the allies' heavier artillery soon began to tell, and the Germans were driven back. Several of their rafts captured. Belgian troops advanced shoulder deep in the water fighting the Germans, many of whom surrendered. The others retired."

NO U. S. BUILT SUBMARINES FOR ANY NATION NOW AT WAR

President Frowns on Action and Schwab Plants Have Deferred to Views of the Executive.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—President Wilson today expressed the opinion
through a statement issued by Secretary Bryan that the building of submarines for any of the belligerents of the present war would be contrary to the spirit of the neutrality of the United States.

The statement contained an announcement that the Bethlehem Steel corporation, of which Charles M. Schwab is president and which owns the Fore River Shipbuilding company, had deferred to the views of the president.

It is understood they will not deliver any submarines to the belligerents during the present war.

Military Supplies.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—[Special.]— Representative Vollmer of Iowa today introduced a resolution authorizing the president to place an embargo on the exportation of all munitions and contraband of war except foodstuffs. Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska introduced a similar resolution in the senate.

Belgium's Queen Pens Note of Thanks to Women of U. S.

QUEEN ELIZABETH
OF BELGIUM

New York, Dec. 7.—Messages of gratitude to the women of America from Elizabeth, queen of Belgium, and the Duchess of Vendôme, sister of King Albert of Belgium, written at the headquarters of the Belgian army on the firing line, were received here today by the Woman's Section of the American Commission for Relief in Belgium. The messages, obtained during the course of one of the recent battles, were cabled here by H. C. Hoover, chairman of the American commission in London, who has just returned to England after a week's visit in Belgium.

Queen Elizabeth's Message.

Queen Elizabeth's message reads as follows:

"It gives me great pleasure to accept the invitation which has been transmitted to me to become patroness of the Woman's Section of the American Commission for Relief in Belgium. I wish to extend to the women of America the deep gratitude of the women of Belgium for the work which they are doing for my people. The food which your country is daily providing to our women and children comes like a ray of sunlight in the darkest hour of Belgium's history. The Belgian women have fought a brave fight, and are still fighting for the common cause of human liberty so dear to every American woman's heart."

Duchess of Vendôme's Message.

The message from the duchess said:
"I gladly accept your invitation to become patroness of the Woman's Section of the American Commission for Relief in Belgium. I know that I speak for every Belgian woman and every Belgian child when I say that we thank God for what you are doing. Now that the extremity of our distress is becoming known, we feel sure the tender hearts of the women of America will respond to our cry.
Food is terribly needed by millions of my brave brother's unhappy subjects who still remain in their native land. Before winter is over the need will become still more desperate. In the name of the suffering women and little children of Belgium I ask the women of America to help us."

WILSON TRIES TO BLOCK OPEN QUIZ ON U. S. DEFENSES

Has Resolution Offered in the Senate to Offset Gardner's
Plans in the House.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—[Special.]— President Wilson today declared his opposition to the plan of Representative Gardner of Massachusetts for the creation of a special congressional investigating committee to make an inquiry into the state of the national defenses.

This declaration was made after Representative Gardner called on the president at the latter's request to discuss the defense investigation.

Following Mr. Gardner's call this statement was given out at the White House:
"The president told Representative
Gardner that he was opposed to the method of inquiry proposed by Mr. Gardner because he thought it was an unwise way of handling a question which might create unfavorable international impressions. He stated to Mr. Gardner that he was entirely in favor of the fullest inquiry by the committee of congress and that there were no facts in the possession of the executive departments which were not at the disposal of those committees."

Wants Council of Defense.

Immediately thereafter, with the approval of the president, Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, chairman of the senate military affairs committee, introduced a bill to create a national council for defense. Senator Chamberlain took this step to offset the effects of the Gardner agitation.

Notwithstanding the president's announcement, which was made after he had conferred with Mr. Gardner, the latter announced his intention of pressing the fight in the house. Likewise, his father-in-law, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, introduced a resolution in the senate calling for an investigation similar to that proposed by Mr. Gardner in the house.

Senator Lewis Enters Fray.

Senator Lewis of Idaho entered the discussion when he proposed an amendment to the Lodge resolution, directing that the investigation be made by the proper congressional committees and not by a special committee.

Senator Lodge prevented consideration of this amendment, so Senator Lewis introduced a resolution directing the senate committee on military and naval affairs to investigate the expenditure of appropriations during the period covered by the McKinley, Roosevelt, and Taft administrations, as well as the portion of the Wilson administration which has elapsed.

Public Kept in Dark.

As an indication of the secrecy with which investigations of this kind are handled in the war and navy departments, the committee of the house naval affairs committee afforded a good example.

This committee is headed by Representative Padgett of Tennessee, a "little navy" man. Recently Secretary Daniels announced that he would give the committee a full statement regarding his administration of the navy department during the time he has been its head.
He made this announcement after he had been severely criticized by the press.

Today the committee announced that Secretary Daniels would be heard on Wednesday at an executive session. It is quite probable that no notes will be taken of the proceedings for the benefit of the committee. Information of the secretary's statement will be denied the public.

The president's determination to urge the favorable consideration of the Chamberlain bill is a strong indication of his opposition to the Gardner plan.

PULLMAN SHOPS GET $1,500,000 ORDER FOR CARS

Northern Pacific Railroad Contracts for Ninety-two Pieces of Rolling Stock.

E. R. Slagle, sales manager of the Pullman company, is sure that business is headed in the right direction. Yesterday he closed his largest contract of the year, adding some $1,500,000 to his sales accounts for 1914.

"Everything looks bright," said Mr.
Slagle, after the final contracts had been signed with the Northern Pacific Railroad company for ninety-two passenger coaches. "We have secured the best passenger equipment contract of the year.
The order includes dining cars, baggage cars, and day coaches."

Present Force to Continue.

The delivery is to begin in March,
which means that we will continue to keep our present force of men at work regularly through the winter months.
While there will be no need for additional men, the contract will give us enough work to keep the ones we have busy. All of our men are Chicagoans.
There are several thousand employed at present."

Horses for the War.

Two colonies in the English cavalry purchased 5,000 horses at the stockyards during the day for immediate export.
The horses were purchased for the cavalry and artillery for use in the European war. The price averaged $150 each.

The purchases for the English army have been made heretofore by agents acting for the government. The first shipments were not entirely satisfactory and the army officers were dispatched to make the purchases.

"Uncle Joe" to Talk.

The business of the country will be discussed by "Uncle Joe" Cannon at the annual dinner of the Illinois Manufacturers' association at the Congress hotel tonight. The congressmen-elect's subject is "Industrial Conditions."

Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts will deliver an address on "The Relations of Government to Business."

"Kicks, Past, Present, and Future," is the subject assigned to Samuel G. Blythe.

British Loss 3,919 Officers.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—The date Great Britain
has lost in the war 387 officers killed, 1,777
wounded, 546 missing, or a total officers
casualties list of 3,218 men.

FRENCH LOSE 100,000 DEAD; TOTAL CASUALTIES 590,000.

Correspondent Estimates Cost of War to This One Nation—Germans
Also Suffer Badly

PARIS, Nov. 26.—[Correspondence.]—
The French war office does not issue lists of losses in the war. A correspondent by inquiry in various quarters estimates that the French loss in dead up to Nov. 10 is something under 100,000 men. The number of wounded and sick soldiers being cared for in French hospitals on Nov. 10 is reported to have been about 400,000.

The Swiss government's bureau for the exchange of prisoners of war has the names of 90,000 French prisoners in Germany. Taking these figures together, the total losses of the French army would be about 600,000 men.

The French military authorities, through their agents and spies, are well informed regarding the situation of the German army. The French estimate the number of Germans killed in battle on this front as considerably exceeding 100,000 because the German tactics have been more continually on the offensive, with correspondingly heavier losses on the defensive.

British Loss 3,919 Officers.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—The date Great Britain
has lost in the war 387 officers killed, 1,777
wounded, 546 missing, or a total officers
casualties list of 3,218 men.

JOSEPH FISH TRIAL CRISIS IN ARSON WAR

Hoynes Hinges Future Prosecutions on Wealthy Adjuster's Fate.

Chicago's greatest arson trial begins today.

Joseph Fish, a millionaire public fire insurance adjuster, will be placed on trial in Judge John M. O'Connor's court. He is charged with burning a building in order to obtain the insurance. His wife, conspicuous in social circles, is known the city over for her many philanthropic efforts.

On the proof of Fish's guilt will depend substantiation of the accusation of the state's attorney that he is one of the overlords of the "arson trust" which has been termed the biggest criminal conspiracy in the United States. For twenty years the arson ring annually has defrauded insurance companies out of millions of dollars in Chicago alone.

Twelve days were spent in the selecting of the twelve jurors who are to hear the Fish case. The twelfth man was chosen last night after 100 gentlemen had been questioned as to their fitness to hear the case. Names were accepted who had incurred the loss of property by fire, or who were prejudiced against fire insurance companies, or familiar with their business methods.

The Jury Complete.
The list of the jurors is as follows:
John H. Barry, millwright, 1560 Twenty-eighth street.
Frank B. Stone, wire worker, 3380 Sheffield avenue.
Paul H. Green, 6115 Indiana avenue, floor manager.
Charles Harter, baggage man, Maywood.
Herbert E. Cleveland, telephone inspector, 142 West Superior street.
Herman J. Kuhlman, wire chief, 5223 Carmen avenue.
Edward T. Walley, abstract clerk, 2100 Seminary avenue.
Bruno Alberty, piano tuner, 3310 North Albany avenue.
John E. Buitnik, truck gardener, Stickney township.
Anthony J. Sheridan, greengrocer, 4506 North Leavitt street.
Charles J. Henderson, salesman, 6718 South May street.
George B. Rogers, clerk, 5041 Prairie avenue.

Fish Indicted in 1909.
Mr. Fish had been in the insurance field for only a year when he was indicted in connection with a fire in the store of the Freeman Fur company in 1909. Together with Samuel Freeman and Henry Seaf he never was brought to trial, the indictment being faulty.

Said to Have Hired Korschak.
Fish will stand trial on the first of twelve indictments, voted against him by the grand jury a year ago last spring. The specific charge in the first case against him is that he conspired for the burning of the household furniture store of Joseph Lewis at 4255-27 Superior avenue, South Chicago. In his capacity as insurance adjuster representing Lewis he is said to have hired David Korschak, a professional "torch," to set the fire and defraud the insurance company.

"Frameup," Says Fish Attorney.
Mr. Fish refused last evening to discuss his case. His attorney, Benjamin Bachrach, said:

"The case against Mr. Fish, who is the largest insurance adjuster in the country, settling claims of millions of dollars every year, is a trumped up 'frameup.' The two main witnesses for the state, David Korschak and his wife, made a practice of soliciting business from merchants who wished to have their property fired by using the name of Mr. Fish. Later the merchants would call upon him to settle their claims, and thus a suspicion was attached to him. We will prove that he has had absolutely no connection with any 'arson trust' and that the testimony of the Korschaks cannot be substantiated. The Korschaks have received $10,000 from the insurance companies in return for their services, which are terminated to testify against my client."

The trial of Fish brings to a climax the prosecution of the arson ring begun two years ago by State's Attorney MacKay Hoynes.
Scores of friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Fish are planning to attend the sessions of the court. The conviction of Fish will influence the policy of the state's attorney in bringing to trial the other defendants, against whom almost a hundred indictments are pending. This case, it is predicted, will be the hardest fought of all the arson cases.
The prosecution will be directed by Assistant State's Attorney Frank Johnston, who already has obtained fifteen convictions in the arson cases and has directed the work of gathering the evidence in hundreds of cases.

Rose from Grocery Clerk.
Joseph Fish rose from a grocery clerk to a fire insurance adjuster, and is now said to be worth more than $1,000,000. His father was a peddler and a grocery keeper from Germany. Joseph was born in 1864 on Monroe street. At the age of 22 he had become partner for Alexander Fish & Co., a grocery firm on Madison street. Later he was promoted to the positions of superintendent and manager and was taken into the firm. In a few years he became a member of the cloak house of Roosevelt & Fish on Madison street, and three years later Fish became the sole owner of the company, which had changed its name.

In the '90s he became president of a dry goods firm, a few years later the president of another. He withdrew in 1908 and became an insurance adjuster. He now lives with his wife and two adopted girls at 1811 Prairie avenue.

Secret Gasoline Store.
Gasoline is secretly stored in the building; the owner leaves the "torch" in possession; the latter arranges the goods and supplies the gasoline so it will easily catch fire, and the torch, and does the scene. Each "torch" has his own professional ways of setting fires, some using explosive powders, others gasoline stored in special containers, such as paper sacks.

The investigation begun two years ago by State's Attorney Hoynes is the first of its kind on a large scale. A total of 113 indictments were voted by the grand jury against persons involved in fifty-six fires. In these indictments four public adjusters, two adjusters' assistants, and seven "torches" were charged with arson.

Joseph Clarke, an adjuster now in the penitentiary, was named in thirty-four indictments, and Joseph Fish in thirteen indictments. Clarke's indictments involved insurance of $125,500 and Fish's $100,500.
Fifteen men thus far have been found guilty of arson after a trial in the Criminal court.

Clarke and Covites Fall First.
The first conviction obtained was that of Joseph Clarke, adjuster, and Edward J. Covites, a torch, who were indicted on 18-20 South Fifth avenue. On June 29 of last year they were found guilty of burning the Covites warehouse on Nov. 5 of the preceding year. Clarke was also charged with attempting to bribe Assistant State's Attorney Edwin J. Rader with $200 in order to prevent the indictment of the Covites brothers. It was in this case that the state sprung its first witness, John Danies, a confessed "torch," who admitted starting the fire.

A month later, following further investigation by Assistant State's Attorney Frank Johnston Jr. and Everett Johnson, who have conducted the prosecution, the name of Joseph Fish was brought into the arson cases.
The sensational testimony of Mrs. Annie Korschak, the wife of David Korschak, who was the adjuster who accepted the contract for the settlement of an incendiary fire in the place of business of Leopold Dreyfus in South Market street, resulted in his indictment.

SAFER HOSPITALS HIS PLAN.
Building Commissioner Will Demand Fireproof Structures Provided by Ordinance.
Building Commissioner Ericson yesterday said he would seek a closer regulation of hospitals under the building ordinances. He said an inspection showed only 40 per cent of the 100 hospitals in the city could pass the examination for fireproof structures. As the ordinance now stands, hospital buildings two stories or less in height need not be fireproof. Commissioner Ericson believes even one story hospital buildings should be made safe, because of the helpless condition of many of the patients.

'DRY' AND MOOSE UNION PROPOSED A CONVENTION

Prohibitionists Adopt Platform and Invite Progressives to Come Into the Party.

A union of the Progressive and Prohibition parties was proposed in resolutions at the convention of the Cook county Prohibition party, held last night in the Masonic temple.
The resolutions, which were read by Edward E. Ziska, chairman of the resolution committee, are as follows:
"Resolved, That the Prohibition party welcomes the Progressive party into the ranks of minority parties and cordially invites it to join the original Progressive union, the greatest enemy of social justice."
Having adopted seven of the sixteen planks of the Prohibition party, we invite the Progressives to stand with us on the whole platform for a vital national issue, national prohibition, the lack of which brought about the collapse of the Progressive party."

J. H. Hill Named for Mayor.
John H. Hill, an attorney living in the Twenty-fifth ward, was nominated for mayor. Five women were named for aldermen.
"I have inside knowledge," Mr. Hill said, "that the Progressive party expects to adopt a plank in favor of national prohibition at its next national convention, and there is no reason why the women cannot go together."
Vacancies in the list of aldermen are all to be filled within a week. The following were nominated:

Mayor—John H. Hill.
Treasurer—John H. Lewis.
Charles F. Fiedler, Treasurer.

G. O. P. Names Committee.
The Republican county committee yesterday named a committee to prepare rules for the caucus which is to choose an organization candidate for mayor. The committee consists of Francis P. Brady of the First ward, Victor Arnold of the Twenty-ninth ward, and Thomas J. Healy of the Thirtieth.

A committee of five was named by County Chairman David F. Matcibet to confer with the defeated Republican candidates to prepare a list of names to be put on the ticket. The committee consists of Victor Arnold of the Twenty-ninth ward, John C. Cannon of the Twenty-sixth, David Clark of the Thirtieth, Walter E. Schmidt of the Eighteenth, and William Buss of the country town.

M'GOORTY RULES IN FAVOR OF WOMEN IN ELECTION SUIT.

Circuit Justice Decides They Had Legal Right to Vote for Municipal Judges in November Contest.

Women won a legal advantage yesterday when Judge John P. McGorty, sitting as chief justice in the Circuit court, ruled that the women voters had a right to participate in the election of Municipal court judges.

The opinion of Judge McGorty upheld the right of women to vote in the election of Municipal court judges.

The case came to Judge McGorty through a petition for a writ of certiorari sought by James Donahoe, a defeated Democratic candidate for Municipal court judge.

BEGGARS' FEUD BREEDS A RIOT

Wooden Legs, Crutches, and Canes Fly in Fight Over Routes.

CLASH IN A BARROOM.

Probably the oddest procession of customers in Chicago passed nightly below the huge wooden "redoubt," which proclaims in passersby that the "largest claimant in passersby" might be had in the saloon of Isaac Bobinsky, at 1325 South Jefferson street.

One legged men brush the swinging doors aside with their crutches. Men bearing placards on their chests and wearing dark colored glasses have no difficulty in finding their way to the bar. One armed men, deaf mutes, and cripples of all kinds may be found juggling the store of an evening and dancing "business." Legless men on roller skates shoot under the flapping doors with a quick duck of the head and are handed their beers by their taller fellow customers.

Bill a Successful Mendicant.
Bill McDuffie is one of the most successful of Bobinsky's patrons. Bill claims to have only one leg, and the police have found no cause to doubt his word during the three years he has collected pennies from passersby on Halsted street between Madison and Fifth streets. Bill claims an option on the east side of the street between these bounds. "Bill Jones" holds title to the west sidewalk by right of conquest. Woe be to the trespasser who ventures on this territory with unrepentant heart.

Down on Fourteenth street stands John Finley, whose business assets consist of the loss of one arm and "deafness." Business hasn't been good of late down on Fourteenth street.
Yesterday morning McDuffie was told by one of his regular patrons that he had just given his daily nickel to a one armed man at Halsted and Jackson streets. The loss of the nickel rankled in Bill's bottom all day. He arrived at Bobinsky's earlier than usual and waited for the trespasser to arrive.

Wooden Leg Graces Head.
Finley edged his way through the swinging doors at 7 o'clock. A wooden graced his head by a few inches. His crutches were waiting for an opportunity to crush the carload of McDuffie, rallied to his support. Others aligned themselves with their old leader, Bill.

A few minutes later a riot call was turned in at the Maxwell street station. When the police arrived they found the floor strewn with wooden legs, artificial limbs, and roller skates. A man leaped against the bar with a sign on his chest bearing the inscription: "I am blind."

"I didn't see nothing, but I heard an awful lot," he said.
"One of 'em ran out and saw you coming," grinned Bobinsky, "and they beat it."

SUES HER MOTHER-IN-LAW.
Mrs. Emma Baruth, Ailing $20,000, Assesses Relative Extraneous Her Husband.

Just how far a mother may go in winning the affections of her own away from her son's wife will be tested in a suit for $20,000 filed yesterday by Mrs. Emma Baruth. The bill alleges her mother-in-law "won the affections" of William Baruth, her husband. Mrs. Emma Baruth, the mother-in-law, lives at 224 Commerce street. The young Mrs. Baruth alleges her mother-in-law was so successful in the "courtship" of the husband and son that he left his wife on Jan. 15, 1913, and has not returned to her since.

SCHMITZ AGAIN A CANDIDATE.
Former Mayor of San Francisco Says He Will Seek Re-election in 1916 Contest.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 7.—Eugene E. WASHBURN SUE BY EASTERN KIN FOR $33,000 FUND

Former Chief of Police Lost Trust Sum Speculating, It Is Said.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the District court yesterday against Elmer Washburn, former chief of police and one time candidate for mayor of Chicago. Mr. Washburn is nearly 60 years old.

The petition was filed by Attorney Herbert J. Friedman in behalf of Dr. Samuel Crowell of Boston. Dr. Crowell is the administrator of the estate of the late Miss Sophia W. French of Boston, a niece of Mr. Washburn.

It is alleged in the petition that Mr. Washburn owes the heirs of Miss French about $33,000. This money, it is stated, was placed in the hands of Mr. Washburn more than ten years ago as a trust to be invested for Miss French. The petition charges he lost the money through speculation.

Examination Set for Tomorrow.
Following the filing of the petition Attorney Friedman obtained from Judge Landis an order for an immediate reference to Edward C. Barker, Esq., referee in bankruptcy. An examination of Mr. Washburn was set before Referee Barker for tomorrow. At that time he will be questioned as to whether he has any assets and what disposition he has made of the money said to have been entrusted to him by Miss French.

Dr. Crowell married a relative of Miss French, according to Attorney Friedman. The heirs in Boston, he said, are determined to learn what has become of the money and to compel restitution.

In correspondence with the heirs Mr. Washburn reported he invested the money, but he never explained how or in what the money was invested. Attorney Friedman said: "Subsequently he explained that the money was lost."

Denies He Got Trust Fund.
Attorney R. P. Hollett, counsel for Mr. Washburn, said no trust fund ever had been given over to his client.

"I have been attorney for Mr. Washburn a great many years and I never heard of any such fund," Mr. Hollett said. "There is absolutely no basis for the charges."

When told about the bankruptcy proceedings Mr. Washburn said: "What's that? What's that? Well, I won't say anything about it; good-by." Mr. Washburn was chief of police of Chicago years ago. Prior to that he was a member of the Illinois legislature. In 1891 he was candidate for mayor on the Citizens' ticket, but was defeated by Hempstead Washburn. In 1903 Judge Judd appointed him receiver of the Zion life works.

BLEEDING TOE IS CAUSE OF DEATH

Loop "Murder Mystery" Is Solved When Physician Finds Ingrowing Nail.

JOHN MCCORMICK VICTIM

This is the solution of the "Great Toe Mystery."

An expressman reported to the detective bureau yesterday morning that he had found the body of a man in an upper room in the Hobbs building at an upper Washington street.

Detectives rushed to the room, examined the door and windows for clues, and entered the room stealthily. The body of an old man lay on the floor, on which there was blood. There was a bruise on the man's head. The covers on the bed were turned back. Only $1.30 was found in the man's trousers pocket.

"Ah," smiled the detective, "we have another Engstrom and Logan mystery." They groped about the room for clues. Finally one interviewed Albert Johnson, the janitor.

Identified as John McCormick. "The man's name was John McCormick," said Johnson. "He was 60 years old and lived here for a long time. He had few friends. He showed me a roll of bills yesterday."

"There's the motive for the murder," said the detective. "It's an ideal case." Corner Hoffman was notified, and he sent Detective George Schirmer to the scene. The detectives picked up all the tangible evidence and started out.

William Springer dropped into the Eastern Casket company's morgue at 38 East Randolph street, where the body had been removed, to make the customary examination.

Solution of the "Mystery."
"What caused the death?" reported asked Dr. Springer last night. "The doctor replied in a matter of business way: 'The old man sat on the edge of the bed trying to pry out an ingrowing nail of the right foot. He tore the nail loose and the loss of blood weakened him. Then he dropped over on the floor.' The nail made the bump on the head. The blood on the floor came from his toes. He lost about a pint."

APPEL TO BE PROSECUTOR.
Mayor Announces Assistant to McInerney Will Get Place When Lattin Sets Commission.

James A. Mr. McInerney's official certificate is expected this morning, and in case it arrives, Mayor Harrison announces that Albert J. Appel, who has been chief assistant in the city prosecutor's office, will be appointed to Mr. McInerney's place as city prosecutor.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the District court yesterday against Elmer Washburn, former chief of police and one time candidate for mayor of Chicago. Mr. Washburn is nearly 60 years old.

The petition was filed by Attorney Herbert J. Friedman in behalf of Dr. Samuel Crowell of Boston. Dr. Crowell is the administrator of the estate of the late Miss Sophia W. French of Boston, a niece of Mr. Washburn.

It is alleged in the petition that Mr. Washburn owes the heirs of Miss French about $33,000. This money, it is stated, was placed in the hands of Mr. Washburn more than ten years ago as a trust to be invested for Miss French. The petition charges he lost the money through speculation.

Examination Set for Tomorrow.
Following the filing of the petition Attorney Friedman obtained from Judge Landis an order for an immediate reference to Edward C. Barker, Esq., referee in bankruptcy. An examination of Mr. Washburn was set before Referee Barker for tomorrow. At that time he will be questioned as to whether he has any assets and what disposition he has made of the money said to have been entrusted to him by Miss French.

Dr. Crowell married a relative of Miss French, according to Attorney Friedman. The heirs in Boston, he said, are determined to learn what has become of the money and to compel restitution.

In correspondence with the heirs Mr. Washburn reported he invested the money, but he never explained how or in what the money was invested. Attorney Friedman said: "Subsequently he explained that the money was lost."

Denies He Got Trust Fund.
Attorney R. P. Hollett, counsel for Mr. Washburn, said no trust fund ever had been given over to his client.

"I have been attorney for Mr. Washburn a great many years and I never heard of any such fund," Mr. Hollett said. "There is absolutely no basis for the charges."

When told about the bankruptcy proceedings Mr. Washburn said: "What's that? What's that? Well, I won't say anything about it; good-by." Mr. Washburn was chief of police of Chicago years ago. Prior to that he was a member of the Illinois legislature. In 1891 he was candidate for mayor on the Citizens' ticket, but was defeated by Hempstead Washburn. In 1903 Judge Judd appointed him receiver of the Zion life works.

NATION TO MEET A HUGE DEFICIT IN COMING YEAR

Proposed Outlays Will Exceed Revenue Provided For by at Least $60,000,000.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—(Special.)—The United States government is going to have a hard time making both ends meet until after the end of the European war, if not longer.

Not only will the government have great difficulty in meeting all expenses during the remainder of the current fiscal year, but during the following year it will be decidedly "hard up," unless congress enacts the most rigid economy.

The estimates of appropriations for the fiscal year beginning July 1 next, which were submitted to congress today by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, propose outlays of nearly $90,000,000 in excess of the revenue which the government can expect to collect during that period.

Shows Need of Budget.
Belmont has the financial condition of the government presented a more "insistent call for the eradication of 'pork barrel' and other wasteful appropriations. Never before has the crying need of a budget system of selective appropriation been so graphically depicted.

Yet in spite of a superficial appearance of retrenchment in various branches of the service, the proposed appropriations for 1916 are tainted with "pork." For example, the administration proposes the expenditure of $53,000,000 for river and harbor "improvement," compared with $27,000,000 this year. According to many members of congress a large part of this proposed outlay of $53,000,000 is pure waste and simple.

Some Decrease in Estimates.
In these estimates the various departments ask congress to appropriate for the 1916 fiscal year a total of $1,007,715,134, which is $3,268,962 less than congress appropriated for the current fiscal year and $17,969,048 less than the departments asked a year ago. From this $1,007,715,134 Secretary McAdoo deducts the reimbursable postal service appropriation of $297,355,104, leaving a total outlay of $785,419,970.

President Wilson must inform congress where the revenue to meet these disbursements is to be obtained. The estimated revenue for this year will not exceed $736,000,000, and it is presumed that on account of the war the revenue for 1916 will be even less.

Estimates Made by McAdoo.
Secretary McAdoo's estimates of the appropriations required by each department for the fiscal year of 1916, compared with the appropriations for 1915, follow:

	1916.	1915.

Plans Long Tour as Bible Lecturer.

THE REV. WILLIAM EVANS.

THE REV. WILLIAM EVANS, a fourteen years a member of the faculty of the Moody Bible institute, has presented his resignation, to take effect next January. Dr. Evans will visit the principal cities of the United States, Canada, and Great Britain as a Bible lecturer. He will be associated in Bible conferences with the Rev. G. Campbell Morgan of London, the Rev. Camden M. Coburn of Allegheny, Pa., the Rev. F. N. Palmer of Winona Lake, Ind., and other Bible teachers. Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus of Chicago and Secretary of State W. J. Bryan are also scheduled to appear on some of the Bible conference programs. The conferences are under the direction of the Rev. S. C. Dieck, director of the interdenominational and international Bible assembly, located at Winona Lake, Ind.

Dollars for pork barrel creeks and bays is recommended by the administration, an increase of only $72,787 is allowed for the navy, the chief bulwark in the defense of the nation from foreign foes.

For the navy and for increase thereof, as distinguished from the entire navy department, the estimates call for the expenditure in 1916 of $142,619,000, compared with $141,946,216 this year.

The 1916 building program of the navy proposes two new battleships, six destroyers, eight submarines, one gunboat, and one tender. This represents an increase over the building program for 1915 of exactly one gunboat and one tender.

Board's Plan Not Heeded.
The building program proposed in the estimates indicates that President Wilson and Secretary Daniels are unwilling to embrace the larger naval constructive policy recommended by the general board of the navy, which is headed by Admiral Dewey.

For the army the administration calls for an appropriation of $100,866,849, compared with the last appropriation of $102,017,122, a proposed increase of $3,849,737.

MUTUALIZATION ORDERED OF PRUDENTIAL RISK COMPANY.

Policyholders Approve Plan, Which Now Must Go Before New Jersey Equity Court.

Newark, N. J., Dec. 7.—The mutualization of the Prudential Insurance company of America, was ordered today by vote of its policyholders.

The majority was overwhelming, there being only 206 votes against the plan out of 841,000 proxies received by mail. The count proceeded this afternoon.

The plan approved by the policyholders is to be placed before Chancellor Walker of the state equity court, who will have to pass upon it. If he concurs he will appoint three trustees with power to purchase the outstanding stock at a price of $450 for each share of a par value of $50.

CONGRESS GETS AWAY ON FINAL LAP OF SESSION

Clark, Mann, and Underwood in House and Sherman in Senate Cheered.

[By a Staff Correspondent.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—(Special.)—The final lap of the sixty-third congress was started at noon today when Speaker Clark in the house called that body to order, while Vice President Marshall at the same time announced the opening of the senate.

In the house Speaker Clark, Minority Leader Mann, Majority Leader Underwood, and Gov. Eliot Willis of Ohio were given enthusiastic receptions.

In the senate Senator Lawrence T. Sherman of Illinois was greeted heartily by his colleagues on both sides of the aisle and congratulated on his reelection. The senate does not indulge in demonstrations, but the vice president was forced to call for order on more than one occasion while Senators Penrose, Sewall, Callinger, and other senators of the "old guard" were congratulating themselves upon their reelection to the upper chamber.

Clark Enters Hesitatingly.
There was much speculation as to how the house would receive Speaker Clark because of his unfortunate experience at Detroit last week. The white haired presiding officer entered the chamber rather hesitatingly. Several Democrats near the lobby door recognized him and let out a yell. The Republicans joined in with them, and the speaker, pale and solemn, stood mute for three minutes while the cheering continued. Then he rallied for order.

The blind chaplain of the house, the Rev. Henry N. Coe, then delivered the invocation. He had hardly said "Amen" when Minority Leader Mann sought recognition by his followers. The Democrats repeated the courtesy to Speaker Clark by joining in. While this demonstration was proceeding Governor-elect Willis of Ohio entered the chamber. But for his size Willis probably would have been carried up the aisle by his happy comrades.

Three New Members Sworn In.
Three new members were sworn in to all vacancies—J. D. Price of Maryland, Richard Wayne Parker of New Jersey, and Carl Vinson of Georgia.

The roll call showed the following mid-die west congressmen present: Gorman, Sabath, Callinger, Britten, Thomson, O'Hair, Borah, Graham, and Balis of Illinois; Kennedy, Connolly, and Haugen, Iowa; Korbly Peterson, and Rauch, Indiana; S. W. Smith, Michigan; Manahan, Minnesota; Curry, Elch, and Konop, Wisconsin.

Representative Stephen Hoxworth of the Fifteenth Illinois district answered a roll call for the first time since May, 1913. Mr. Hoxworth was absent from Washington for a year and a half on sick leave. To his colleagues in the Illinois delegation he apologized for his absence and expressed the hope that his health would permit him to see the session out. "I feel quite a little better," Hoxworth said, "and I hope to be able to remain here through the session."

Clark Makes "Slight Error."
Little business was transacted in the house. The death of the late Representative Merritt of New York was reported, and resolutions were passed. Speaker Clark was empowered to appoint a committee to attend the funeral at Potsdam, N. Y., tomorrow. The speaker, who is still suffering from his Detroit illness, apparently, named the late representative as a member of his own funeral committee. His attention was promptly called to the strange mistake, and the name was withdrawn.

READ 50 NOTES BY 'POISON PEN'

Detroit Jury Hears Obscene
Letters Which Spoiled
Ypsilanti Homes.

WOMAN THE AUTHOR?

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 7.—[Special.]—Fifty obscene letters of the most obscene nature were read to the jury in Federal court this afternoon in the "poison pen" case, of which Mrs. Margaret McCready of Ypsilanti is accused of being the writer. Nearly fifty letters were introduced in evidence.

An effort on the part of the defense to show that James Clark, a prominent citizen of Ypsilanti, and the one for a long time believed to have been the author of the notes, had been pursuing some of the women who received the anonymous communications was blocked by the ruling of Judge Tuttle barring this testimony.

Woman Denies Slender Story.
The effort was first made when Mrs. Frances Killian, the first witness produced by the government, was on the stand. She had testified to having received letters in which she was accused of being an immoral woman and with having had improper relations with Alvin Edward Leas, the man most often mentioned in the letters. Mrs. Killian, on cross examination, denied ever having had anything to do with Mr. Leas.

She was then asked by Attorney Frank H. Watson of counsel for the defense if James Clark had forced his attentions upon her. Her answer accusing Clark of such pursuit was stricken from the records and this line of examination was abandoned.

Mrs. Killian's husband, Lewis, an Ypsilanti merchant, Herbert A. Biscoe, and Mr. Leas all identified letters written to them.

Courtroom Is Crowded.
The court was crowded, many persons coming from Ypsilanti, and others, having no connection with the case, jamming their way in, impelled by curiosity aroused by the sensational developments.

Mrs. Killian's husband, Lewis, an Ypsilanti merchant, Herbert A. Biscoe, and Mr. Leas all identified letters written to them.

The letters offered in evidence today purported to come from a man, all without exception, alleging infidelity to marriage vows, immoral conduct, or other suspicious actions, the evident intent of the writer being to create suspicion between husbands and wives. This object was accomplished, the result of the letters being the breaking of family ties, the starting of slander suits, and a widespread disarrangement of the formerly tenured life in Ypsilanti.

CENSOR REPORT ON VICE FINDING IN WISCONSIN

Conditions Too Revolting to Describe in Detail; Disease
Heavy Tax on State.

Madison, Wis., Dec. 7.—That censorship of the description of revolting vice conditions found by the legislative anti-vice commission in Wisconsin was necessary is embodied in a preface to the recent report turned in by that body.

Anticipating that the report would be criticized if it revealed in detail too suggestive conditions for public reading, the legislators carefully selected their words and explained their action in the following note:

"This report presents to a limited extent the conditions found to exist in this state. In many instances the facts disclosed to the committee are of such astounding and sensational nature that their publication herein would be unwelcome. In order to make the report as free from suggestiveness as possible, and still present to adults the deplorable conditions found to exist, the language used by the investigators and witnesses has been carefully censored."

Disease a Heavy Tax.
From what it believes are authentic figures the committee computes the loss from venereal disease as equivalent to a tax upon the people of the state of $7,500,000. Dr. Howard Kelly is quoted as declaring that this loss throughout the United States is $5,000,000,000 annually.

As one of the means of exterminating the social plague, the committee suggests that when the women's reformatory is opened at Taycheedah, a department for the care of unfortunate women be provided.

Suggests That Cities Act.
Without waiting for laws to be enacted by the legislature, the committee suggests that municipalities should pass ordinances prohibiting life loitering around depots, restaurants, and other public places.

The committee does not approve or disapprove of the teaching of sex hygiene in the public schools, but takes the stand that teachers and ministers of the gospel should be instructed in the deeper fundamentals of life in order to exercise a wholesome influence in training the young to lead moral lives.

Women's organizations of the state are invited to deal with the domestic servant problem.

MYRTLE REED'S WIDOWER REPLIES TO ESTATE SUIT.

James S. McCullough Denies the Charge of Late Wife's Parents and Makes Counter Accusations.

James S. McCullough, widower and executor of the estate of the late Myrtle Reed McCullough, an author, in an answer to the suit brought in the Superior court by Hiram V. Reed and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Reed seeking the appointment of a receiver for the estate, denies the charges he has misappropriated funds of the estate.

He alleges that the bill was filed because of the "avarice, cupidity, and jealousy" of Mrs. Reed, averring that under the law he could have renounced the will and thus freed himself of the responsibilities imposed upon him by it and have received all of the personal property and half of the real estate left by his deceased wife.

He avers that the late Mrs. McCullough did not wish to leave a lump sum to her parents, who are the complainants in this suit, partly because of their age. She provided in her will that as long as both her parents lived they were to receive $35 a week from the estate. This provision, Mr. McCullough says, he has carried out. The estate, it is recited, amounted to $43,764.

Mr. McCullough charges that his mother-in-law had certain manuscripts left by Mrs. McCullough published from which she is receiving large royalties. These, he asserts, should be turned over to the estate.

Aeroplanes Play Big Part in European War.

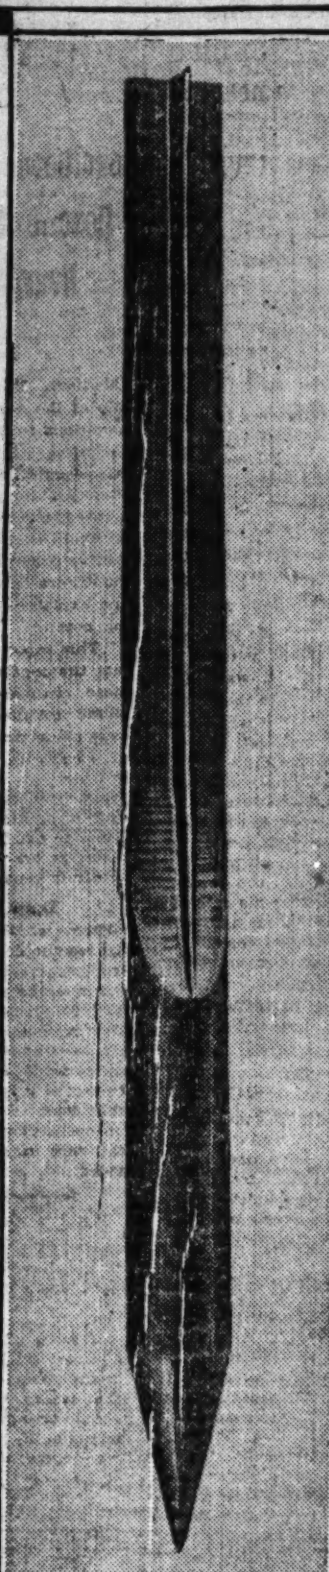

THE GERMAN TAUBE—This German monoplane is known as the Etrich type and is fashioned more along the lines of an albatross than a dove, after which it is named. The German monoplanes have done great service in scouting before the armies in France and Russia. As a matter of fact, so far the war has shown that the aeroplane is much more efficient under war conditions than the Zeppelin. The great difference in cost of construction also favors the heavier-than-air machine as against the lighter-than-air machine. The aeroplane also is able to protect itself from attack more easily than the larger and more unwieldy airship.

THE SWORD OF DAMOCLES.

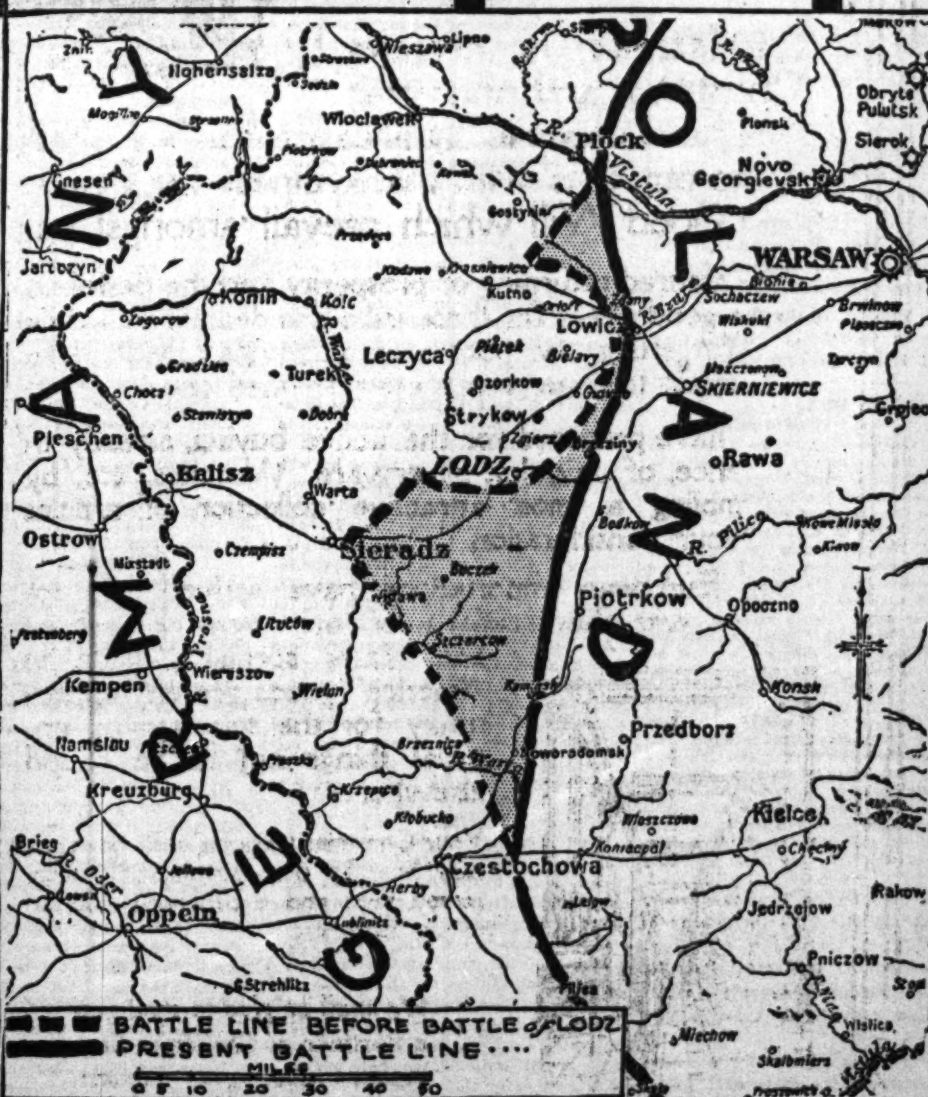

THE SILENT DEATH, THE NEW WAR WEAPON—The perfecting of the flying machine has brought into use new and deadly weapons. They are steel arrows, about five inches long and a little thicker than a lead pencil. They are dropped from aeroplanes in batches of 500, a mechanical arrangement spreading them over an area of 200 yards. From a height of 1,500 feet they obtain a terrific speed by the force of gravity, and will penetrate a man's body from his head to his heel. It is reported that they are used by all the airmen of the warring nations.

FRENCH MONOPLANE FLYING OVER A FIELD REPAIR SHOP—The French for the most part have favored monoplanes in their air craft, although they also use a very efficient biplane type of machine. The picture shows a machine shop on wheels which follows in the wake of the aeroplane fleet of the French army. The monoplane shown in the picture has a speed of 125 miles an hour. (Photo Copyright: 1914. By Underwood & Underwood.)

BRITISH ROYAL FLYING CORPS IN BELGIUM—The record made by the British aeroplane forces has been a surprise. They have shown more efficiency than the French and fully equaled that of the Germans. The English use both the monoplane and the biplane types. (Photo Copyright: 1914. By Underwood & Underwood.)

THE BATTLEFIELD OF LODZ—By the capture of Lodz the Germans have straightened out their line in Russian Poland and have lessened the danger of being outflanked by the Russians. At the same time the main German line is drawn forward closer to the point of farthest advance, Lodz. Before the capture of Lodz the German line took a large bulge, with Lowicz as the apex, and Kutno and Sieradz as the wings. Now the battle line runs almost due south from just east of Plock, through Lowicz, just west of Piotrkow, east of Czenstochowa, and to Cracow. The line generally is from fifty-five to seventy-five miles west of Warsaw, and in this region another great battle is imminent.

FRENCH MILITARY AVIATION CAMP AT CHALONS-SUR-MARNE—A fleet of eighty machines of the French aerial navy was gathered here at the opening of the war. Though a number have been lost in active service many new machines have been added. Those in the foreground are of the biplane type. They are considered more stable though not as speedy as the monoplane. (Photo by American Press Service.)

BABY TWINS, PAUL AND VIRGINIA, COO PLEAS FOR HELP

Rheumatism Gnarled Father Is About to Be Evicted and the Larder Is Bare.

A charity worker in the southwest side of Chicago, who has been helping the family of Paul and Virginia, who were born in a very poor year for the "L" family. The father has been out of work for eight months because of rheumatism—the kind that twists the fingers into knots and sends quivering pains all through the body.

But there was already a sturdy little lad 4 years old, who needs plenty of nourishing food. But Paul and Virginia, tied up snugly in huge pillows, laugh and cry, unconscious of the fact that the landlord is a veritable Blue Bird, and that the larder is pitifully bare.

Will not some Good Fellow bring Christmas cheer to this little family? Won't some generous Santa Claus contribute toward a rent bill and the $2 a week needed for food?

How One Poor Woman Got Help.

A whole group of neighborhood people became spontaneous Good Fellows the other day in the west side district of the United Charities, when that organization appealed for help for a family of a deserted woman and four children, the youngest a baby of 4 months. The family had been evicted late in the afternoon. The woman and her 15 year old son were found sitting hopelessly by the pathetic little heap of furniture, guarding it. The three younger children had been taken in by kind hearted neighbors.

Visitors for the United Charities were sent scouring the neighborhood for a habitation for the family. A flat was found and the United Charities paid $13 for a month's rent in advance.

Never Works Overtime Free.

A mover was appealed to and donated a team while one of the furniture movers agreed to work after hours moving the family free. A neighbor gave $1 toward the rent, the employer of the 15 year old boy gave $5, while a group of young women in an Epworth league in the neighborhood promised to raise an additional sum. Mrs. V., the deserted woman in question, had been having trouble with her husband for some time. The eviction took place because the family had paid no rent since May, being unable to more than barely to live on the $3 a week the boy earned. The infant was born May 9 and it was on May 5 that the husband deserted after having beaten his wife severely. A warrant has been issued for his arrest, but he has not been found. Good Fellows are needed to help this family now.

Here is a letter that came along with a Good Fellow, cash contribution yesterday:

"In the gladness of anticipation incidental to a visit home over the holidays—and I haven't been home or seen any of my folks for two years—I can but recognize a longing to share the joy, gladness or whatever it may be with some one of the poor deserving creatures in your great city, and therefore you will please use the enclosed check for $10 as you deem best.

Doesn't Care How It Is Used.

"I care not whether it be used immediately in the payment of rent, purchase of food, etc., or whether it be used to lighten the hearts of some poor children who are not expecting Santa Claus to visit them.

"I want to, in fact I must, feel that I have at least made the sun shine where darkness now seems too heavy to lift. I believe every man should do his share and I congratulate you on your wonderful work."

There Are Seven Other Children for Her Mother to Provide For.

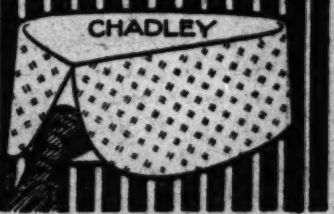

The baby is one of eight children in the P. family out on the northwest side. Before long the mother will be eligible to a widow's pension, but in the meantime the savings left by the dead father have been exhausted. The family needs $12 a month for rent, $7 a week for food, and $5 a month for milk, besides fuel and clothing. About $50 a month in all will be needed for four months until the pension can be provided.

Here's a Good Way to Help the Poor.

On other day the secretary of a manufacturing concern put a box out in the general office and suggested that anybody who wanted to be a Good Fellow "even for a penny's worth" would find the collection box an easy way. The collection netted enough to give a good sized family a real Christmas. It will go to a family that has never had a Christmas before. Yesterday's contributions to THE TRIBUNE'S Good Fellow fund:

Put this surprise outside your window Christmas morning

An Electric for their very own—a roomy, cozy, easy-to-drive Electric! Could any Christmas gift delight your wife and family more? Could any other gift better express your tender regard for them?

No longer is there any need to forego the pleasure of owning an automobile, when it costs so very little to own an Electric. For, the dependable Electric gives almost double the service of a touring car and all the exclusiveness of a big limousine—at a fraction of the cost.

A speed of 20 miles an hour and over is at your command with an Electric—and that's faster than the law allows. No "lay ups" during inclement weather—none of the mechanical troubles of other types of cars.

Make this a Christmas to be remembered every day in the year and for years to come. Give a sturdy, serviceable Electric. Make up your mind today.

WITH the expense of all other sources of automobile power increasing, the records of the Commonwealth Edison Company show a constant decrease in the rates for electric vehicle battery charging.

FLAT JANITORS' STRIKE SPREADS

Four Apartments Owned by Fielding Marshall Now
Are Affected.

SLUGGINGS REPORTED.

Fifty families were forced into the uncomfortable role of suffering noncombatants yesterday when the janitors' strike extended to three other apartment buildings owned by Fielding Marshall.

Union icemen and milkmen are siding with the janitors and refusing to serve occupants of the Marshall buildings. The buildings are at 4545 Sheridan road, 4140 Sheridan road, 4134-8 Broadway, and 900 Aldridge place.

Two union "pickets" at the Aldridge place building were arrested during the morning. They were charged with loitering. When arraigned in the Sheffield avenue court they demanded jury trials. The cases were continued. They are John Vent of 4529 Hanel avenue, assistant business agent of the Janitors' union, and Carl Johnson of 6132 Broadway.

Five policemen were detailed to protect the apartments. A tenant of the building on Aldridge place told them a laundry wagon driver employed by the White Star laundry had been slugged by the pickets early in the morning. It was also reported that a grocery delivery boy had been beaten up. The union men denied the charges.

Officials of the union say they will picket the building until Mr. Marshall employs union janitors. Mr. Marshall is endeavoring to obtain an injunction restraining the union from picketing his property.

UNITED CHARITIES ISSUES GENERAL HELP APPEAL.

Points Out That 4,700 Families Are Now Being Cared For and Winter
Brings Added Burdens.

A special appeal for contributions for general purposes was issued yesterday by the United Charities, citing the fact that 4,700 families, victims of war and unemployment conditions, are now under the care of the organization.

"You can help prevent serious suffering and illness by sending a check today to David R. Forgan, treasurer, 108 North Michigan avenue," this appeal reads.

This Important Sale of Laces

Offers Great Price Savings on Exquisite New Patterns

In fact, these Laces have just been received from Europe—shipping conditions there accounting for their tardy arrival.

Because of this delay, we find our stocks too high for this time of year. To prompt their immediate selling we have placed very moderate prices on these shipments.

The patterns are so charming that Paris modistes have been employing them extensively in blouses and dance frocks.

Metal-Embroidered Laces—30 inches wide—At $3.90 Yard.

Of cobweb delicacy—with two-tone colorings—cream edged with black and embroidered in "gold" threads, blues embroidered with "silver," and black with "silver." These are of tunic width, and one can imagine how effective they would be evolved into one of the modish tier-skirted gowns, for matron or maid.

Broderie des Vosges—At 85c—$1.25 and $1.45.

Those effectively embroidered nets that so resemble hand embroidery are offered in widths of 7 inches and 19 inches—for bodice and tunic use.

Color Embroidered Silk Tulle at $2.25.

In the delicate tints one wants for the Debutante's evening gowns, all embroidered with delicate flower sprays or garlands. These are 19 and 20 inches in width.

First Floor, South Room, State Street.

Gift Shoppers Will Appreciate the Superiority of These Men's and Women's Silk Umbrellas

At $5.00 and $6.00

Concentration, this season, on Silk Umbrellas at these prices has made possible better values than are usually offered.

With this knowledge we direct especial attention to these great holiday stocks, comprehensive of the greatest variety as to woods, trimmings and handle shapes.

These Umbrellas are covered with a high grade of silk, and have non-rustable steel frames.

Men's Umbrellas:

Have handles of malacca, pimento, snakewood, partridge, mission, cane horn and buck horn, the favored shape being the "Prince of Wales Crook." Many of these handles are trimmed with bands of sterling silver, or have silver inlaid patterns. All 28-inch size.

Women's Umbrellas:

The much favored straight, tall handles give opportunity for the use of such woods as malacca, snakewood, ash, pimento, rose and bacallie, silver tipped or banded, or having unusual silver designs inlaid or applied. Other styles have French enameled caps.

Such Umbrellas possess that degree of refinement in material and design that makes them worthy of the gift shopper's consideration.

First Floor, State Street, South Room.

Black Silk Hosiery Specially Priced at 3 Pairs for $2.50

This is a price specially arranged for the holiday time. The stockings are the well-known Burlington brand. Three pairs of a size are assembled in attractive gift boxes. Other boxes of three pairs at $3.25, $4.00 and $5.00 the box.

Black Silk Hosiery—handsomely embroidered—at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.50 and $5.00 the pair.

First Floor, North Room, State Street.

Handkerchiefs—Easily-Chosen Gifts for Men, Women and Children

Few articles of merchandise receive more consideration in the gift shopper's mind—and with good reason.

Handkerchiefs can cost very little—or many dollars; can be welcomingly practical—or hand-loom woven treasures; are easy to choose, and convenient to send by post.

To meet the holiday demand, the usual space devoted to Handkerchiefs has been tripled—and the sales force correspondingly increased.

Men's Handkerchiefs

In many grades of linen—at 12c and 18c to $5.00 and $7.00 each. Initial linen Handkerchiefs at 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1.00.

Annex—Store for Men.

Women's Handkerchiefs

French linen and chambray lawn handkerchiefs, embroidered or plain, at $1.00 to $5.00.

First Floor, Middle Room.

FLICKERINGS from FILM LAND

"THE GHOST BREAKER."

Larry.

Warner Bros. presents "The Ghost Breaker," starring Larry.

It is a picture of a ghost breaker, with a sense of humor makes it a very good watch. The picture is built about the spirit of a ghost breaker, with a sense of humor makes it a very good watch. The picture is built about the spirit of a ghost breaker, with a sense of humor makes it a very good watch.

Let no one be alarmed, however, for the picture is not a ghost breaker, but a picture of a ghost breaker, with a sense of humor makes it a very good watch. The picture is built about the spirit of a ghost breaker, with a sense of humor makes it a very good watch.

A grave accusation considering the popularity of movie-making plays, comes thus: "It isn't nearly so atmospheric as the stage version. Among other things those painted backdrops spoil the atmospheric effect. Just why any one should be moved to see a picture of a ghost breaker instead of the original scenery, California provides a good answer. It is a thing peculiarly and especially within the scope of the camera. A painted scene wall, providing it is thick enough, is endurable, but a painted scene wall is painful.

However, such fears are merely fears, and while raising against the quality of the picture, do not spoil it. It is full of fun, of the mirthful, subtle sort—panoramic speaking—and has enough thrills and curious happenings to keep one well awake. The business of the picture is one of these, as of the suit of armor coming to life with a brigand in the trap door, and the portrait with the rolling eyes. But it is all a nice happy experience, and H. B. Warner is there with his American bonhomie and his revolver.

There is a princess in the plot—a pretty girl, too—and the picture, as usual, they tell where treasure is hidden in the castle, the cause of the villain's ghostly defense of it, and which by passing through a series of exciting adventures, a round of love and jealousy serve to bring all the principals from the far corners of the earth together.

Mr. Warner is brought, in spite of the circumstances of the picture, to a rather too static role, in a trunk, thereby escaping from eagle eyed detectives to serve as ghost breaker to his efficiency for royal reward. He has earned her, if ever he has, and he has provided a deal of pleasure for observers.

Cinema Chatter.
Anna Little and Herbert Rawlinson, after all the hard work of "Damon and Pythias," have continued the holiday season a picture called "The Big Sister's Christmas."

"Betan Sanderson," Halle Ermsine, "The National Academy," and "The A-100 program."

California players have been having a run of misery. Dorothy Gish, Melvyn, was knocked down by an automobile, resulting in an injured side, a lost toe, and a hospital engagement for a month. "Kajen's" "Hazard of Helen" have

But it is all a nice happy experience, and H. B. Warner is there with his American bonhomie and his revolver.

The baked beans are the best model for much of the casserole cooking. To be perfect they must take for a long time in a slow oven, it is used to the brick oven after the bread and pies were taken out covered with water, which was renewed if they were left over night, but which was all absorbed so that the beans, preserving their shape perfectly because not stirred by the heat, came out so soft and savory as to melt in the mouth.

Slow cooking with adequate seasonings is the secret of the excellence of the casserole dishes. One of their highest recommendations is that they may be made of inexpensive materials, yet rank among the elegant dishes.

As to the amount of liquid to use with different dishes, judgment must be exercised, but, for instance, a small quart casserole filled to the top, with more than three-quarters of its contents vegetables, will usually take up no more than a cup of water. If there are fewer vegetables and more meat it will probably not take this much. Little water escapes through the Fun for the Neighbors.

Copyright, 1914, by Lillian Russell.

FRESH air treatment for the complexion is nature's remedy for all skin discomforts and diseases. Walking and driving in the open air is wonderfully refreshing to the skin. Keep out in the air as much as you can. Go out dressed properly for a walk every day. Wear sensible shoes and an easy corset and a wide enough skirt to allow you to step out freely. Don't tell your face heavily. Let nature's pure air bathe your face in her cool embrace while you walk a few miles. Do this regularly and in an incredibly short time you will be surprised at the improvement in the texture of your skin and at how much rosier your cheeks are and how much brighter are your eyes.

Diet and Exercise.

I was overburdened with too much sweets, put on my plate just what I wanted. I dieted, as was suggested, left out potatoes, candies, and, in fact, all I thought was really necessary, and never took another helping, and the following week I found more than half the weight on my hips, drew in my breath, contracted the abdominal muscles and those over the hips as hard and tense as possible, then pushed down with my hands with all my strength on an imaginary table. I took these exercises many times a day, and I soon found my dress was all loose. Sometimes I fancied I saw a difference from day to day. X. Y. Z.

Her Prize Method.

I punched the bag one-half hour every morning and evening. It was a little hard at first, but I got used to it soon. In four weeks I could notice the difference.

Removing Marks of Stitches.

"Will you be kind enough to let me know through your Corner as soon as possible how to press a crepe de meteor dress which was remodeled but shows tiny holes where the crepe was removed? And as I must make this dress, I would thank you very kindly for letting me know how to cover these tiny holes." H. L. L.

Cover with fine linen or lawn slightly damp throughout, and press hard upon the scars left by the stitches. If you can get at the wrong side of the stuff and press that through the dampened cloth as much the better.

Words of a Poem.

"Can you give me the words of the poem 'Hello'? I should like to know the author's name. M. F. R. N."

Referred. I do not know the rhyme. I hold your address.

Directions for Fancy Articles.

"I am making a scrap book of fancy articles, such as beads, corn porcelains, etc. I should be thankful if some of your Cornerites would send me directions for making the different articles." L. K. P. B.

Fancywork articles to the front! As Christmas comes closer to us there are few families where pretty directions are not in the making. Brief directions such as Irene P. B. wants are trifling to the giver and valuable to the recipient. Her scrap book should be worth having when it is completed.

Giving a Japanese Party.

"The writer is giving a Japanese party. Could you please advise on the following: What would you consider a proper Japanese menu? Should we sit upon the floor while dining? Should the kimono be worn throughout the entire evening? What games should we play? L. L. L."

Your first question is referred to readers who have visited Japan. I had an account the other day of a Japanese luncheon which began with soup and included bowls of water in which live fish were swimming. Next came poached eggs (eaten with chopsticks) and after them sugared beans, said to be delicious. I

Love Letters

DORIS BLAKE SAYS: "The best college bred doesn't rise from hops."

She's Not Superstitious.

"Dearest Boy: Only once yesterday morning have you been gone and it seems like a year."

"I do not think the firm should ask you to take trips away from home, now that you have a wife, and especially when you have only had her a month."

"The postman has gone and I did not get a letter from you. O, dear, I do feel so worried, especially since I remember waking in the night and hearing a dog howling terribly. You know I am not a bit superstitious, but this morning when I ran across to get the milk I stepped almost on a black cat and it spit and growled at me."

"I feel this and tell me you are all right. So many accidents happen, you know. Maybe you had better send a special delivery letter so I will get it sooner."

"What will I do without you all of today and tomorrow and every day for a long, long week? Every minute will be an hour. Nothing is the same when you are gone."

"I cannot read or sew or work without that lonesome feeling. Well, I can only write and hope the days may go faster until you come."

"Lots and lots of love. Yours WIFE."

"P. S.—The more I think of that dog howling the more worried I get. I believe you had better telegraph."

Bright Sayings of Children

"The Tribune" will pay $1 for each child's saying printed. The stories may be sent in either by children or their parents. The only condition is the story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, "Tribune," Chicago.

A new cake rule has been going the rounds lately and a cousin of mine made it for some guests at dinner the other night. They all exclaimed over its delicacy and flavor, and the fact that it was eggless, milkless, and butterless. The 4 year old daughter piped up: "Yes, and its worst part, too, for mamma spent more than an hour getting the worms out of the raisins." K. P. T.

I overheard the following conversation between my two children, 6 and 7 years old:

"Daddy said the weather man had promised us a wet day today and it turned out fine after all so he has fooled us."

His sister replied: "No, Halphie, the weather man did not fool us; he was fooled himself." P. T. O.

My neighbor's little boy, aged 6, upon seeing a poll parrot for the first time went up to admire it and got a nip at its finger. He walked away, looking sad, and said: "Ugh! I thought it was a nose, but I see it's a tooth."

MAN AND DOG

out Develops More Science than Action, Ohioan Being Careful.

OUTHERNER CLEVER.

Akron, O., Dec. 7.—(Special.)—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion of the world, signalled his start after the fight with a right hand to the head of his opponent.

The criticism to be offered on Kilbane's work was that he was too careful and took too few chances. Mandot did all the forcing and practically all the leading. It was Mandot, not Kilbane, who made it a real fight, and if a line had been drawn the shade belonged to the southern boy, but for no reason more than that he gave a decision on such a slight margin.

Kilbane's nose split. Not until late in the fight round did either boy show a mark of the battle, and no blood had been spilled. Then Mandot, desperate because of his failure to put a left swing to the nose. Pulling it back quickly, he landed a terrific backhand wallop on the bridge of Johnny's nose. Opening a crack, Kilbane's head and both connected, and to those at the ringside it appeared that the elbow had done the damage.

When they separated blood was streaming from the cut on Johnny's nose, and he immediately protested to Referee Smith. The protest was not allowed. Then for the first time it became a real battle. Johnny rushed Mandot to the ropes and landed him half through them. The seventh and tenth were much more, but neither boy was able to run up a decisive advantage.

Mandot's Cleverness Surprised. Mandot's clever blocking surprised all. It had been expected by Kilbane's admirers that he would let Joe almost at will. Instead the southern leader just about as many straight lefts as did the featherweight champion, and he did what has been considered impossible—made Kilbane miss time after time with a left jab. Joe's fighting with gloves, head, and body was beautiful, and a number of times when the crowd thought Kilbane had landed with a left the blows had been blocked.

Where Mandot's work was disappointing was in his failure to do much damage with his right. That was because Kilbane made a defensive battle from first to last and watched the Dixie lad's right hand throughout. Kilbane made Joe miss repeatedly with the right, but the few occasions that Mandot did connect were not followed by Kilbane. Joe's most damaging blows were rights to the body. Twice Kilbane's chest had been hit low, once in the fourth and once in the fifth round, but from the ringside it appeared that both blows were fair.

Exhibition of Boxing. While the match brought no great bout of action, it was a beautiful boxing exhibition. Mandot was willing to make it a real battle, but Kilbane's blocking was so good that he was not forced to return to his defensive position. He was not forced to return to his defensive position. He was not forced to return to his defensive position.

Manager Jimmy Dunn had no complaint to offer when told the majority of the papers had decided on a draw decision. Personally, Dunn thought Johnny's boxing and the many times he made Mandot miss had given the featherweight champion the edge. Tommy Walsh, Mandot's manager, wasn't worried any about the decision.

"I think Joe ran up a fairly large lead, certainly large enough to win the award," said Walsh. "But, then, if you see it as a draw, that's all right."

The sale receipts for the bout were $10,000, of which Kilbane received 40 per cent and Mandot 50 per cent. Ticket speculators didn't write up to the possibilities the fight presented until the last day, but once they realized the chance for profit they lost no time in getting on the job. Two dollar tickets brought $5 each, while the promoters were adding 50c for the 50c ringside seats. None of the vendors had any of the 50c ringside seats to start. They had been sold before the bout was three-fourths sold before the spectators started their operations. In Akron the seats were offered in singles and pairs, showing that the get-rich-quick fellows had been at work.

The Rev. L. N. D. Wells, pastor of the First Church of Christ here, made an unsuccessful attempt during the day to prevent the boxing on the ground that it was to be a prize fight and a boxing match. Mayor Heckerly granted the permit, stating to interview, however, saying that if it was desired to prevent the show some protest should have been made before the day of the contest and before the referee had been put to a great expense to do it.

May Legalize Sport in Ohio. George A. Schneider, secretary of the Ohio Athletic Union, who acted as announcer, made a three minute talk in defense of boxing. He pointed out that there have been no prize fights in the state of Ohio for 100 years and that the Kilbane-Mandot fight would be a boxing match and not a prize fight. He said that the state of Ohio had no law against boxing and that it was a great pity that it was not legalized in the state.

Long before time for the first preliminary of the Kilbane-Mandot fight, the crowd started to fill the arena. The first preliminary was a six round bout between two local boys. The crowd was so large that the arena was filled to the top.

WHITE TO MEET SHUGRUE DEC. 23

Local Boxing Star Matched with Easterner; Bout in New York.

By RAY C. PEARSON. The papers issued by the Madison Square Garden Athletic Club of New York will announce as the star attraction for Dec. 23 "Charley White vs. Young Shugrue." This match was held yesterday, when Jimmy Johnston, matchmaker of the big Gotham club, connected Nate Lewis, manager of White, and secured his signature to an agreement to battle the easterner as stated.

The agreement signed by Lewis not only provides for this fight but for a contest to follow, in which White will fight Champion Freddie Welsh, the second bout, of course, being dependent on White having the better of his battle with Shugrue. The contest, in which Welsh will be a principal, will be staged sometime in January, the date to be selected later.

Third Meeting of Battles. This battle between White and Shugrue should be a real one. It will be the third meeting of the two fighters, the first place more than two years ago, in each of the contests both White and Shugrue claimed to have the advantage. Since those meetings both boys have improved. The first fight, in which White was the winner, was a real one. It was a real one. It was a real one.

Both White and Shugrue recently fought Welsh, the former getting a draw with the champion at Milwaukee, while Shugrue gave Welsh a trimming at New York, winning eight of the ten rounds. White Shugrue's performance against Welsh was better than White's, that does not indicate the easterner is a better fighter than the Chicago boy, and the question will not be decided until Dec. 23. The weight set for the match is 135 pounds, to be made at 5 o'clock.

White's contest with Frankie Daly, called off last night, at Toledo, was a real one. It was a real one. It was a real one. The fight was a real one. The fight was a real one. The fight was a real one.

Packey to Fight Gibbons. Despite the fact that he failed to win Jimmy Clabby for a match with Mike Gibbons before the Madison Square Club, Packey is still a contender for the title. He is still a contender for the title. He is still a contender for the title.

Compromise Is Expected. Gibbons has refused to fight Packey, who is still a contender for the title. He is still a contender for the title. He is still a contender for the title. The fight was a real one. The fight was a real one. The fight was a real one.

Hoppe to Play Slosson. Hoppe is still a contender for the title. He is still a contender for the title. He is still a contender for the title. The fight was a real one. The fight was a real one. The fight was a real one.

DOON TO JUMP; SERVES 10 DAYS' NOTICE ON PHILS

Former Quaker Leader Asserts Sentiment Is Gone and He's After the Coin.

New York, Dec. 7.—(Special.)—Charles Doon, former manager of the Philadelphia National League team, has served ten days' notice on President Baker of the Phils in order to absolve his contract with that club, and is expected to cast his lot with the Federal League this season.

Doon, who is one of the advance guard gathering for tomorrow's National League meeting, denied that he had been in negotiations with the "outlaw" league, but he is perfectly well understood that the deposed Quaker manager could gain nothing by securing his freedom under the ten day clause if he contemplated doing business with any other club in either of the major leagues. Doon's notice was served last Friday and he asserted he has legal advice that he will be free again by next Sunday. What team he expects to manage next season he will not disclose.

Doon Through with Sentiment. "I am through with sentiment," Doon said today. "It hasn't got me anything so far. My sentiments always have been with the National League, but now I am going after the coin. My services will be at the disposal of the highest bidder. If that happens to be a Federal League club, it will not be my fault."

President Baker has been approached with offers to take Doon by the New York and Boston National League clubs, and some team would like to obtain him, and some deal may be arranged if Doon will agree to play with either of those teams.

Fred Clarke May Quit. Fred Clarke, the veteran manager of the Pirates, failed to come to an agreement with President Baker of the Phils, and he might decide to leave the team tomorrow whether or not he would remain leader of the Pirates. "Dreyfus and I have our differences," said Clarke. "I think tomorrow will settle my future, and the ranch looks pretty good to me right now."

Clubhouse of the National League were guests tonight at a dinner given by President Baker at the New York Hotel. The dinner was a real one. It was a real one. It was a real one.

By R. E. SANBORN. After looking at the roster of the Tins yesterday to see how many of them were not under contract in case organized baseball should begin a war of reprisal, President Weegman issued a challenge to the world to produce a professional baseball team with more native sons in its ranks than the Chicago Cubs.

Nine Are Native Sons. The nine native sons on the north side club's roster are Johnny Farrell, Tom McHugh, Al Wickard, Max Flack, Dave Black, C. L. Clement, Phil Dunlap, Arthur Walsh, and Ervin Lange. They were residents of the city before they ever thought of playing baseball here. Manager Tinker moved to the city years ago, but not until after he became a fixture on the Cub team.

Farrell Not Yet Signed. One of the natives who is not yet signed is Johnny Farrell, but neither club owner nor player expects any hitch in coming to terms. The tentative second baseman may sign his contract today.

PITCHER MILLER A BENEDICT. Frank Miller of Alliance, Mich., and Al Benedict of Detroit, were married yesterday in the bride's home. The Rev. Dr. B. C. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist Church, performed the ceremony. Miller was a member of the Detroit team of the International League. He formerly played with the White Sox.

Victor Supremacy

The fact that the world's greatest artists make records for the Victor is conclusive evidence that the Victrola is the world's greatest musical instrument.

Unlike any other musical instrument the scope of the Victrola is unlimited. It is all musical instruments combined in one, and in addition it is the actual voices of the greatest singers in the world.

If you had one hundred thousand dollars to spend on a concert for one single evening, which tenors, which sopranos, which contraltos, which baritones, which bassos, which violinists, which pianists would you engage? All are at your instant command on the Victrola.

There is a Victor dealer in every neighborhood in Chicago and vicinity
